HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, AND Hoofland's German Tonic.

THE GREAT REMEDIES
FOR ALL DISEASES OF
THE LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medically termed, Extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixtures of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.
Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

Hoofland's German Bitters.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use

Hoofland's German Tonic.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medical virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.
The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as it does with the stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

CONSTIPATION, FLATULENCE, INWARD PILES, FULLNESS OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, NAUSEA, HEART-BURN, DISGUST FOR FOOD, FULLNESS OR WEIGHT IN THE STOMACH, SOUR ERUCTATIONS, SINKING OR FLUTTERING AT THE PIT OF THE STOMACH, SWIMMING OF THE HEAD, HURRIED OR DIFFICULT BREATHING, FLUTTERING AT THE HEART, CHOKING OR SUFFOCATING SENSATIONS WHEN IN A LYING POSTURE, DIMNESS OF VISION, DOTS OR WEBS BEFORE THE SIGHT, FEVER, PAIN IN THE HEAD, DEFICIENCY OF PERSPIRATION, YELLOWNESS OF THE SKIN AND EYES, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK, CHEST, LIMBS, ETC., SUDDEN FLUSHES OF HEAT, BURNING IN THE FLESH, CONSTANT IMAGININGS OF EVIL, AND GREAT DEPRESSION OF SPIRITS.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS
AND
HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,
PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.
These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY,

Resulting frequently from those whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE ENTIRE System, induced by Secret Labor, Hardships, Exposures, Fevers, &c.
There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is credicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavy upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into the veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.

It is a well-established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.
To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.
Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietors, but space will allow of the publication of but few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.

Hon. Geo. W. Woodward,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pa., writes:
Philadelphia, March 16, 1867.
"I find Hoofland's German Bitters is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system. Yours truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD.

Hon. James Thompson,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
Philadelphia, April 28, 1868.
"I consider Hoofland's German Bitters a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON."

From Rev. Joseph H. Kennard, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.
Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicine, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully, H. H. KENNARD.
Eighth, below Coates St.

From Rev. E. D. Fendall,

Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philada.
I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Yours truly, E. D. FENDALL.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. See that the signature of C. M. JACKSON, is on the wrapper of each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

Will it wash farmers' clothes clean, and not be too hard work for the women? Washing machines have so generally proved failures that I am afraid of throwing away my money upon one.'

640 MILES
OF THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Are now finished and in operation. Sixty miles of track have been laid this spring, and the work along the whole line between the Atlantic and Pacific States is being pushed forward more rapidly than ever before. More than twenty thousand men are employed, and it is not impossible that the entire track, from Omaha to Sacramento, will be finished in 1869 instead of 1870. The means provided are ample, and all that energy, men and money can do to secure the completion of this at the earliest possible day, will be done.

The UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY receive:
I.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations.
II.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road. This is an absolute donation, and will be a source of large revenue in the future.
III.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built. The Government takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c. The interest is now much more than paid in this way, besides securing a great saving in time and money to the Government.
IV.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, to aid in building the road, to the same amount as the U. S. Bonds, issued for the same purpose, and no more. THE GOVERNMENT PERMITS the Trustees for the First Mortgage Bondholders to deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the road is completed, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class Railroad, laid with a heavy T rail, and completely supplied with depots, stations, turnouts, car-shops, locomotives, cars, &c.
V.—A CAPITAL STOCK SUBSCRIPTION from the stockholders, of which over Eight Million Dollars have been paid in upon the work already done, and which will be increased as the wants of the Company require.
VI.—NET CASH EARNINGS on its Way Business, that already amount to MORE THAN THE INTEREST on the First Mortgage Bonds. These earnings are no indication of the vast through traffic that must follow the opening of the line to the Pacific, but they certainly prove that upon such a property, resting nearly three times their amount,

Are Secure beyond any Contingency.

The Company have abundant means in their treasury, and make no appeal to the public to purchase their Bonds, as the daily subscriptions are entirely satisfactory; but they submit that, for entire security and liberal returns, there is certainly no better investment in the market.
The Union Pacific Bonds are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached. They have thirty years to run, and bear annual interest, payable on the first days of January and July at the Company's Office in the City of New York, at the rate of six per cent in gold. The principal is payable in gold at maturity. At the present rate of gold, these bonds pay an annual income on their cost of

NEARLY NINE PER CENT.,

And it is believed that they will soon be at a Premium.

The Company reserve the right to advance the price of their bonds to a rate above par at any time, and will not fill any orders or receive any subscriptions on which the money has not been actually paid at the Company's office before the time of such advance.
Subscriptions will be received in GETTYSBURG, by GETTYSBURG NATIONAL BANK and FIRST NATIONAL BANK, and in New York at the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau st., and by JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, No. 59 Wall st., and by the Company's advertised Agents throughout the United States. Remittances should be made in drafts or other funds par in New York, and the bonds will be sent free of charge by return express. Parties subscribing through local agents will look to them for their safe delivery.
A PAMPHLET AND MAP for 1868 has just been published by the Company; giving fuller information than is possible in an advertisement, respecting the Progress of the Work, Resources of the Country traversed by the Road, the Means for Construction, and the Value of the Bonds, which will be sent free on application at the Company's Offices or to any of the advertised Agents.

LONGFELLOW'S "ANGLER'S SONG."

From the river's plashy bank,
Where the sedge grows green and rank,
And the twisted woodbine springs,
Upward speeds the morning lark
To its silver cloud—and hark!
On his way the woodman sings.

On the dim and misty lakes
Gloriously the morning breaks,
And the eagle is on his cloud;—
Whilst the wind, with sighing, woos
To its arms the chaste cold rose,
And the rustling reeds pipe loud.

Where the embracing ivy holds
Close the hoar elm in its folds,
In the meadow's fenny land,
And the winding river weeps
Through its shadows as I still deeps,—
Sits at with my rod I stand.

But when sultry suns are high
Underneath the oak I lie,
As it shades the water's edge,
And I mark my line, away
In the whirling eddy, play,
Tangling with the river sedge.

When the eye of evening looks
On green woods and winding brooks,
And the wind sighs o'er the lea,—
Woods and streams, I leave you then,
While the shadow in the glen
Lengthens by the green wood tree.

PROMPTNESS.—Promptness is a cardinal virtue. Nothing noble in life can be achieved without it. With it all things are possible. Before it all difficulties vanish, all obstacles disappear. The prompt man is the successful man. He takes time by the forelock. The opportunity comes and he seizes.—Luck is on his side. The forces of nature take his part and act with him.—Promptness is not rashness. It never acts blindly. It does not waste its strength in random blows. It strikes at the right moment, and in the right place. It is a wide awake faculty. It sees clearly, and acts a wise decision.—It does not put off till to-morrow what ought to be done to-day.

HOW HE FELT.—Job Norton, who lately lost his wife, was not a man of very deep emotions, and what he did feel and think he kept pretty much to himself. Some of his neighbors had remarked that he took his bereavement quite coolly, and one even ventured to say to him, one day, that he took his affliction little to heart. "Wa'al," said Job, "I haven't blurted round much about it; but inwardly I'm just as mad as any of ye!"

A QUAKERESS at Bloomington, Indiana, jealous of her husband, watched his movements, and one morning actually discovered the truant kissing and hugging his servant girl. AN OLD MAN'S ADVICE.

Some disappointed old man, in the following advice, seeks to make men young suspicious of the girls:

"Young men, keep your eyes open when you are after the women. If you bite at the naked hook, you are green. Is a pretty dress or form so attractive? or pretty face even? Flounces, boys, are of no consequence. A pretty face will grow old. Paint will wash off. The sweet smile of the flirt will give way to the scowl of the termagant. Another and a far different being will take the place of the lovely goddess who smiles and eats your sugar candy. Beware! Keep your eye open, boys, when you are after the women. If the dear is cross and scolds at her mother in the back room, you may be sure you will get particular rubs all over the house. If she blushes when found at domestic duties, be sure she is of the dish-rag aristocracy—little breeding and a great deal less sense. Find one whose mind is right, and then pitch in. Boy, don't be hanging around like a sheep-thief, as though you were ashamed to be seen in the daytime, but walk up like a chicken to the dough-pile, and ask for the article like a man."

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,

Hon. Horatio Seymour,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

Gen. F. P. Blair, Jr.,

OF MISSOURI.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

AUDITOR GENERAL,

Hon. CHARLES L. BOYLE, of Fayette county.

SURVEYOR GENERAL,

Gen. WELLINGTON H. ENT, of Columbia co.

THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES.

HORATIO SEYMOUR, the Democratic nominee for the Presidency, belongs to one of the old Colonial families, and is a grandson of Major Moses Seymour, of the Army of the Revolution. The family at that time was settled in Litchfield, Conn. The father of the Democratic nominee removed to New York, where he was a prominent citizen. The subject of this sketch was born in Onondago county in 1811. He studied law and commenced practice in his native city. At the age of thirty he was elected Mayor of Utica, a success that was due to his personal popularity, as Utica was a Whig city. Very soon after this he was elected to the Legislature, in which body he served for several sessions until 1845, and was during the time chosen Speaker. He was distinguished by his courtesy and ability in all the debates of the period, and it was at a time when there were great dissentions in his own party. Whilst he was in the Legislature he wrote his famous report on the condition of the canals and public works of New York, and an act was passed embodying his views. In 1848, he was nominated as the Democratic candidate for Governor of New York by an unanimous vote, but was defeated by about three hundred votes by Hamilton Fish.

He was again nominated in 1852—was elected over Washington Hunt—and served out his term with great benefit to the State and credit to himself.

In 1854 he was induced to run a third time, but was defeated by Myron H. Clark, who had a plurality of about two hundred votes, and he retired from the office of Governor on the first of January, 1855. In 1862, he was again elected Governor, this time over a noble competitor—General Wadsworth, and served until the beginning of 1865. At the election in 1864, he was defeated by Ruben E. Fenton, the present Governor.

In 1864 he was chosen President of the Chicago Democratic National Convention, and had the same honor conferred upon him by the recent Convention, which added even a higher mark of confidence by unanimously nominating him for the Presidency of the United States.

The present residence of Governor Seymour is in Oneida county, and his occupation for many years has been that of a dairy farmer, which he carries on upon a large scale. In person he is tall and slender, with much dignity in his presence. His manners are pleasant and winning, marked by an ease and courtesy that give a great charm to his conversation. He is a man of extensive reading and highly cultivated intellect, and his admirers claim for him the credit of being the ablest statesman and most eloquent speaker now in the Democratic party. Notwithstanding his lifelong connection with politics, his public career has not swayed him in the least from the strict morality and religious habits for which he has always been noted.

FRANCIS P. BLAIR, JR.—In the nomination for the Vice Presidency the Convention stepped beyond late party lines, in accordance with a desire generally felt. The large influx of the purest and most eminent men of the Republican party, who, shaking the dust from off their feet, have abjured the company of the profligate and revolutionary Radicals, seemed to merit a distinct and cordial welcome from the Democracy. It could not have been given more appropriately and gracefully than in the nomination of General Francis P. Blair for Vice President. Bred a Democrat, he became a leader in the Republican ranks, and, during the lifetime of Mr. Lincoln, enjoyed his peculiar confidence. He did not abuse it, but strove to stem the torrent of Radicalism when its pressure swayed and threatened to overwhelm the Republican President. As a member of the Thirty-seventh Congress, he gave a splendid exhibition of oratory in a debate in which he encountered and overthrew Colfax, who appeared as the political champion of Fremont. He was also a member of the Thirty-eighth Congress, but left it for military service in the field.

He had been very active at the beginning of the war, in wresting Missouri from the control of the secessionists. He afterwards received from Mr. Lincoln the appointment of Major General in the Army. He shared in all the glories of the campaign of Sherman, and was one of the most highly esteemed of his subordinates by that great military commander. Since the war, General Blair has sustained the policy of President Johnson, and is, in opinion, thoroughly identified with the Democracy.

General Blair is in the prime of manhood, being now about forty-seven years of age. He is prompt, resolute, and earnest, with a wide experience, civil and military.

His nomination is heartily acceptable to us, and we applaud the wisdom that dictated it.

MR. PENDLETON, Gen. Hancock, Mr. Hendricks, and other competitors for the nomination for the Presidency, cordially endorse Seymour and Blair.

THE nomination of Seymour and Blair has terribly frightened the Radical leaders. They remember the campaign of 1862, when a "new man" carried all but four States, and fear the same sort of a defeat next November. Well they may!

GENERAL FRANK P. BLAIR fought in more than two score battles, and yet he is denounced in unmeasured terms by the men who stayed at home and sold shoddy cloth, bad coffee and paper-soled shoes to the soldiers. Such is Radical loyalty.

THE Radical journals boast that the British press favors the Grant ticket. It is only a little while ago that these same Radical journals were howling that the British press "sided with the rebels." It does not occur to these papers that possibly the British press encourages rebellion and Radicalism because both tend to the disruption of the Union.

JUMP aboard, gentlemen! In about three weeks every decent white man at the North, excepting only dyed-in-the-wool Radicals, will be declaring himself for SEYMOUR and BLAIR.

Jump aboard! Now is your time to do the auspicious thing. A month hence you will be undistinguishable in the crowd. Jump aboard, gentlemen! —World.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION.

LAST DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Unanimous Nominations of Seymour and Blair!

Exciting Scenes and Unparalleled Enthusiasm!

Such a scene of wild enthusiasm as was presented in the Democratic National Convention, at New York, yesterday week, was hardly ever paralleled in this or any other country.

The Convention had been in session from the previous Saturday, balloting for a candidate for the Presidency fully half of that time, without reaching a nomination. Pendleton, Hancock, Hendricks, and others, had been fairly tried, but no one had proven strong enough for a two-thirds result. Pendleton had been withdrawn, upon the reading of a manly and characteristic letter from him. The decisive moment was near at hand.

The twenty-second ballot was being proceeded with, and when Ohio was reached, Gen. McCook, chairman of that delegation, by unanimous direction of his colleagues, and with the assent and approval of every public man in that State, including Mr. Pendleton, put in nomination, against his nomination but no longer against his honor, the name of Hon. Horatio Seymour. Let us, he said, vote for a man whom the Presidency has sought, and who has not sought the Presidency. This, he believed, would drive from power the Radical cabal at Washington. He believed this nomination would command the unanimous approval of Democrats and Conservatives and men of all sections. He asked, on behalf of the country, that Mr. Seymour should yield to this wish of the Convention.

At the end of these remarks there was the greatest excitement and applause, delegates rising and cheering.

General McCook cast twenty-one votes for Horatio Seymour. [Renewed cheering.]

Mr. Seymour, (Chairman of the Convention,) rose and said that the motion just made excited the most mingled emotions. Whilst thanking the Convention, he most emphatically declined the nomination. He had declined it before, and he must stand by his opinion against the world.

Mr. Vallandigham said in times of great exigency and calamity every personal consideration should be laid aside. He insisted that Horatio Seymour must yield to the demonstration in his behalf. Ohio's vote must and should stand for Horatio Seymour. He called upon the several delegates to follow that lead.

Mr. Kiernan, of New York, to relieve everybody, said the New York delegation have had no lot nor part in this movement of Ohio. The New York delegates had heard something of it, but declined to take any part in it, out of regard for the proper sensitiveness of the President of the Convention, until other States should show, by their action, that Mr. Seymour was demanded by the party in Convention. He urged the necessity of success in the campaign, and expressed his opinion that Mr. Seymour could now accept the judgment of the Convention with honor, and that he should yield as a matter of duty to its wishes. With him as candidate, New York was good for 100,000 majority.

The call of the roll was then proceeded with. Tennessee gave Horatio Seymour 10. When Wisconsin was called, Palmer seconded the State of Ohio and cast 8 votes for Horatio Seymour. [Great cheering.] Kentucky gave Seymour her 11 votes. [Great cheering.]—Massachusetts gave 12 votes for Horatio Seymour. North Carolina changed her 9 votes from Hendricks to Seymour. [Cheers.] Pennsylvania asked that her vote be not recorded for the present. Mississippi changed from Hancock to Horatio Seymour. [Great cheering.]

Mr. Woodward, of Pennsylvania, now rose and transferred the 26 votes of Pensylvania to Horatio Seymour. [Great cheering, with cries of delegates all over the house to their respective chairmen, "Change our vote," "change our vote;" half a dozen States at once wanted to change their votes.] Missouri changed to Seymour 11 votes. Illinois followed en masse for Seymour, amidst tremendous cheering and indescribable confusion. Indiana changed solidly 13 votes to Seymour. Iowa came next 8 votes for Seymour. Texas cast her 6 votes the same way.

Mr. Seymour was already the nominee, and a cannon began to fire a salute on the street. The excitement and enthusiasm became intense. Subsiding somewhat, Alabama, Maine, Kansas and Arkansas also voted for Seymour. This increased the cheering.

A delegate from Minnesota, frantically waving one of the State standards, attracted the attention of the chairman, and cast the vote of Minnesota for Seymour.

Louisana paid a tribute to Hancock—"to the most knightly soldier of the war, whom she had supported earnestly, but she now united in voting unanimously for Seymour." Louisiana gave her seven votes to Seymour.

Mr. Stuart, of Michigan, said that State came to the Convention with the single purpose to nominate a candidate who could certainly be elected. That *position she occupied to-day. He pro*ceeded to eulogize Seymour as the greatest statesman now living, and cast the eight votes of Michigan for him.

The band on Fourteenth street struck up the "Battle Cry of Freedom," the cannons still saluting.

A delegate from South Carolina said he was from a State which felt most heavily the chains of oppression of radical rule. He said South Carolina came here caring more for men than measures. They were satisfied with the platform adopted so unanimously, and South Carolina, with the invocation of God's blessing on the party on which rests the last hope of the country, cast her vote for Seymour.

Maryland changed to Seymour.

Mr. Tilden, of New York, rose to speak. Great interest to hear him was manifested, and cries were uttered of "Take the platform." He spoke from his place, however. He said he did not last evening believe that events which have now occurred, could have happened. His remarks here were not distinctly audible to the reporter because of conversation in his vicinity. He was understood to say that he had no expectation that Ohio would have come to the support even of so distinguished a citizen of the State of New York. New York had opposed Ohio's earnest wishes. In conclusion, he announced the unanimous vote of New York for Horatio Seymour.

Mr. Clark, of Wisconsin, called for the ratification of the nomination by the spectators by three cheers for Horatio Seymour, which were given with a will.

The Chair announced the result, all the States having voted. The result was, for Horatio Seymour, 317 votes. Enthusiastic cheering, the whole Convention and audience rising and waving hats, handkerchiefs, fans, &c., for several minutes.

Mr. Price, then occupying the chair, (Mr. Seymour, overwhelmed with the turn affairs had taken, having retired to a private room,) announced that Horatio Seymour, having received the unanimous vote of the Convention, was the standard-bearer for the coming campaign, and again cheer followed cheer, which were echoed and re-echoed by the thousands of live Democrats in the street.

Order being restored, Mr. Preston, of Ky., offered a resolution to proceed to nominate a candidate for Vice President.

Mr. Woodward seconded the motion, and it was adopted.

A motion for a recess of one hour was then carried.

There seemed to be a general conviction that the Vice Presidency should be given to a Western soldier—and upon re-assembling, Gen. Frank Blair, Gen. Thomas Ewing, Jr., and Gen. McClernand were placed in nomination.

General McClernand rose to thank the Convention, but asked the delegation from Illinois to withdraw his name.—[Cries of "No," "No."] He had no ambition, except to assist in releasing the country from the thraldom which now binds her. He said the soldiers would heartily accept the nomination of Mr. Seymour; the soldiers and sailors were not all for a sham hero, a creature of fortuitous circumstances. More than half of them would vote for the patriot orator and statesman, Horatio Seymour. In conclusion he said he was in earnest in asking the withdrawal of his name.

The Illinois delegate who nominated Mr. McClernand withdrew his name at his earnest request.

Mr. Preston, of Kentucky, made a few remarks, in which he said this nomination was due to the West, and presented Gen. Francis P. Blair, of Missouri. As a Southern soldier, who had differed from Gen. Blair in the war, he (the speaker) desired to say the soldiers of the South extended their hands to the soldiers of the North in token of amity and good will.

Gen. Steadman, of Louisana, seconded the nomination of his companion in arms, Gen. F. P. Blair. He claimed that the support given by the South to Gen. Hancock, and the nomination of Gen. Blair by Mr. Preston was an evidence that soldiers of the South accepted the situation and the issues of the war in good faith.

North Carolina, in order to show that she had no prejudice against the soldier who fought gallantly for his own side during the war, seconded the nomination of Gen. Blair.

Oregon also seconded Gen. Blair.

Pennsylvania seconded the nomination of that great soldier and sound statesman, Gen. Blair. [Cheers.]

When South Carolina was called, her chairman rose and introduced Wade Hampton to announce her response.—He was received with uproarious applause. Gen. Hampton said the soldiers of the South frankly, cheerfully, and cordially accepted the hand of amity extended to them here. He thought it due to the soldiers of the North that they should have the second place on the ticket, and he seconded, therefore, the nomination of Gen. Blair. [Cheers.]

As he took his seat Gen. McClernand crossed the hall and took Gen. Hampton by the hand, amid vociferous applause.

Virginia seconded Gen. Blair in token of her acceptance of the proffer by the Northern soldiers of amity and goodwill.

At the close Mr. Tilden concurred in the nomination of Gen. Blair.

The delegate from Kansas who nominated Gen. Ewing now rose and said by request of that gentleman, and the instructions of his delegation, he withdrew the nomination of Gen. Ewing, and moved that Gen. Blair be nominated by acclamation.

Maine seconded the motion.

The roll call was ordered and each State in its order voted unanimously for General Blair.

Judge Woodward, in casting the vote of Pennsylvania for Blair, pledged 20,000 majority for the ticket in that State in November next.

When Tennessee was called, Judge Nelson introduced Gen. N. B. Forrest to cast the vote. [Great cheers.] Gen. Forrest rose and cast the vote for Gen. Blair, and thanked the Convention for the courtesy and kindness extended by its members to the soldiers of the South.

Col. Ashbel Smith, with a few remarks, cast the vote of Texas for Gen. Blair.

The Chair announced that a unanimous vote having been cast for Gen. F. P. Blair, he was the nominee of this Convention for Vice President.

Mr. S. S. Cox, of New York, rose to move that the nominations be ratified by the unanimous voice of both the delegates and audience. The entire assemblage united in three cheers.

The Secretary read a telegraphic dispatch from Lancaster, Pennsylvania, announcing that the Democracy there were firing a salute for the nomination of Horatio Seymour, which nomination is received with great enthusiasm.

Mr. Kernan, of Pennsylvania, offered, and the Convention adopted, a resolution of thanks to the citizens of New York for their hospitality, &c.

Mr. Whyte, of Maryland, offered a resolution of thanks to the president and other officers of the Convention, which was adopted.

Mr. Vallandigham, of Ohio, offered a resolution sympathizing cordially with the workingmen of the United States, &c. Adopted.

Mr. Kiernan, of New York, at the suggestion of many members of various delegations, moved that the thanks of this Convention be tendered to Chief Justice Chase for the able and impartial manner in which he presided over the impeachment trial of President Johnson; then,

On motion of Gen. McCook, of Ohio, the Convention adjourned sine die, with repeated cheers.

MR. PENDLETON AND GOV. SEYMOUR.

The following manly and generous private letter addressed by Mr. Pendleton to Washington McLean, of the Ohio delegation, before that delegation left Ohio, was handed to John A. Green, Jr., on their arrival in New York:

CINCINNATI, June 25, 1868.

MY DEAR SIR: You left my office this morning before I was aware of it. I seek you at home, but you are not here. I must say what I want by note.

As soon as you get to New York see Governor Seymour. You know well my affection and admiration for him. You know well what was my feeling before and after I heard from him last fall. He is to day the foremost man in our party in the United States. His ability cultivation and experience put him at the head of our statesmen. He commands my entire confidence—I would rather trust him than myself with the delicate duties of the next four years. You know I am sincere.

Make him feel this, and that he can rely on me and my friends. I have a natural pride—an honest pride, I believe—in the good-will of my countrymen; but you, better than any one else, know that it is neither egotistical nor over-ruling, and that I am ready—anxious to give up the nomination to anybody who can get one single electoral vote more than myself.

Express all this frankly to the Governor, but delicately, and let him understand my views of men and measures as I have frequently given them to you. Good-bye. God bless you!

Very truly,
GEORGE H. PENDLETON.

To Washington McLean, Esq.

This letter is honorable to the writer, to the distinguished statesman who has supplanted Mr. Pendleton without being his rival, and to Democratic politics which are conducted in a chivalric and self-surrendering spirit worthy of the loftiest and most generous days of knighthood. The Democracy of New York and of the whole East have always appreciated Mr. Pendleton's personal qualities and intellectual gifts, and they would regret to have him come out of this contest with any of the feelings of a disappointed candidate. His claims are not cancelled, but postponed. It is a great honor for so young a statesman to have received such marks of public confidence as have been bestowed upon him, and such proofs of the fidelity and warm attachment of his friends. He has established his title to be considered the foremost man in the Democratic party next to him who has been nominated. So bright a dawn gives promise of a glorious day. With his abilities and accomplishments, he has also that rare generosity of nature which disarms envy and wins all hearts; and the fact that he is advanced more slowly than his friends could wish will cause his countrymen to feel that they owe him an undischarged debt. It is reserved for him to preside over the Government in more tranquil times, when prejudices are allayed and the questions which now agitate and distract our afflicted country shall have been finally settled.—New York World.

—The following is a copy of Mr. Pendleton's equally manly letter read before the National Convention just previous to the withdrawal of his name from the list of candidates for the Presidency:

CINCINNATI, July 2.

Washington McLean, Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York.

MY DEAR SIR: You know better than any one the feeling and principles which have guided my conduct since the suggestion of my name for the Presidential nomination. You know that while I covet the good will of my countrymen, and would feel an honest pride in so distinguished a mark of their confidence, I do not desire it at the expense of one single electoral vote (great applause), or of the least disturbance of the harmony of our party. I consider the success of the Democratic party at the next election of far greater importance than the gratification of any personal ambition, however pure and lofty it might be. [Loud cheers.] If, therefore, at any time a name shall be suggested which, in the opinion of yourself and those friends who have shared our confidence, shall be stronger before the country, or which can more thoroughly unite our own party, I beg that you will instantly withdraw my name, and pledge to the Convention my hearty and zealous and active support of its nominee.

Very truly yours,
GEORGE H. PENDLETON.

ENDORSEMENTS OF SEYMOUR AND BLAIR!

THE COUNTRY ABLAZE WITH ENTHUSIASM!

VICTORY IN NOVEMBER CERTAIN!

The nominations of SEYMOUR and BLAIR are received with every demonstration of satisfaction by the Conservative people of the country, East, North, West and South. Never before was this enthusiasm surpassed, if equalled. Even Pierce's nomination did not create such hearty joy.

Let the candid man contrast all this with the utterly spiritless manner in which the names of Grant and Colfax have been received, and he cannot, for the soul of him, resist the conviction that a Democratic victory is certain in November next.

We have only room for a few of the many endorsements coming in from all quarters. From them, however, the reader will have an idea of the happy frame of mind enjoyed by the Democracy—a feeling which, in forty-nine cases out of fifty, is the harbinger of success:

New York.

NEW YORK, July 10.—The Democratic ratification meeting held at Tammany Hall to-night was a large and enthusiastic affair. Mr. Samuel J. Tilden was Chairman.

In reply to the Chairman of the committee appointed by the Convention to inform him of his nomination, Mr. Seymour spoke as follows:

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen of the Committee: I thank you for the courteous terms in which you have communicated to me the action of the Democratic National Convention. [Cheers.] I have no words adequate to expressing gratitude for the good will and kindness which that body has shown to me. Its nomination was unsought and unexpected. It was my ambition to take an active part, from which I am now excluded, in the great struggle going on for the restoration of the government and prosperity to our country [Great cheers.] But I have been caught by the overwhelming tide that is bearing us on to a great political change, and I find myself unable to resist its pressure. [Loud cheers.] You have also given me a copy of the resolutions put forth by the Convention, showing its positions upon all the great questions which now agitate the country. As the presiding officer of that Convention, I am familiar with their scope and import. As one of its members, I am a party to their terms. They accord with my views, and I stand upon them in the contest upon which we are now entering. I shall strive to carry them out in full wherever I may be placed in public or private life. [Cheers.] I congratulate you and all conservative men who seek to restore order, peace, prosperity, and good government to our land, upon the evidences everywhere shown that we are to triumph at the next election. [Prolonged cheers.] If those who are politically opposed to us flattered themselves there would be discords in our councils, they mistook the uncertainties of our views as to the best methods of carrying out our purposes for difference of opinion with regard to those purposes; they mistook an intense anxiety to do no act which should not be wise and judicious for a spirit of discord; but during the lengthened proceedings and earnest discussions of the Convention, there has prevailed an entire harmony of intercourse, a patient forbearance, and a self-sacrificing spirit, which are the sure tokens of a coming victory. Accept for yourselves, gentlemen, my wishes for your future welfare and happiness. [Cheers.] In a few days I will answer the communication you have just handed me by letter, as is the customary form. [Tremendous and long continued cheer.]

At the conclusion of Governor Seymour's speech General Blair made some remarks, accepting the nomination for the Vice-Presidency, and pledging himself to adhere to the principles enunciated in the platform.

The announcement of the Democratic nominations in Brooklyn was received with the wildest enthusiasm. The people were all out, and anxious to hear the result. About 7 o'clock a large crowd of citizens assembled on the steps and in front of the City Hall, where the merits of the candidates were discussed.

A salute of 101 guns was fired from the City Hall Park last evening, under direction of the Kings County Democratic General Committee, in honor of the nominations.

TOWN, COUNTY AND SURROUNDING COUNTIES.

"Limbo."—Sheriff Hann has nine "boarders."

Dividend.—The Littlestown Savings Institution has declared a dividend of 3 per cent. for the last six months.

Accident.—Capt. E. Maginley, of Fairfield, had the little finger of his right hand cut off by a mowing machine, on the 30th ult.

Examination.—There will be a Special Examination of Teachers in the Public School building, in this place, on Monday next, (July 20,) at 9 o'clock, A. M.

Heavy Clover.—Forty tons of clover hay were gathered from twelve acres of land owned by James W. Duffield, in the Welsh Run district, Franklin county, this season, in six days, by three men.

Degree Conferred.—We are pleased to notice that at the recent Commencement at Franklin and Marshal College, Lancaster, the honorary degree of A. M. was conferred upon Rev. W. R. H. Deatrich, of this place.

Death of an old Printer.—The Cincinnati papers notice the death of John M. McCreary, one of the oldest practical printers of that city. He was a native of Gettysburg—his father (James A. McCreary) having kept a hotel some 50 years ago on Baltimore street

The Heat Continues.—We continue the register of Mr. Powers's thermometer, corner of High and Washington streets, as follows: On Saturday last the highest point reached in the shade was 100°, Sunday 103°, Monday 102°, Tuesday 102°, Wednesday 105°, and yesterday 101°. This is the hottest "spell" of hot weather, and the longest, that we have had here for thirty years.

Paid Promptly.—Some nine or ten months before his death, Rev. Dr. Baugher took out a Policy for $5,000 in the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia. The Company promptly paid the $5,000, on being apprised of Dr. B's. death, together with $126 Premium, which had already accrued on the Policy. The card of this Company will be found in our advertising columns—Henry J. Fahnestock, of this place, being agent for Adams county.

THE reported death of Mr. Eldridge, of Wisconsin, in New York, by the premature explosion of a cannon, turns out to be untrue. Another man much resembling him was killed.

Extraordinary Case.—We were furnished, the other day, with the particulars of a most extraordinary case. About twenty months ago, a small child, aged then seven months, son of Mr. Jerome J. Martin, of this place, was taken with a choking spell, almost throwing it into spasms. Medical aid was summoned, and temporary relief had. The child, however, declined, every now and then being almost stifled with some obstruction in the throat. On Tuesday week, however, its distress was suddenly relieved and the mystery explained. Whilst at the dinner table a violent fit of coughing came on, and in the effort the boy threw up a piece of lead, large enough, we should have supposed, to strangle a grown person in a few moments. It was in the shape of a shield, measuring one inch and three-eighths one way and one inch and a quarter the other, and weighing one ounce and a quarter! The little fellow has since been breathing easily and speaking plainly. That a child of its age could, in the first place, have swallowed so large an object, and in the next endured it for twenty months, is to us a marvel. But we have had ocular proof of the size and weight of the leaden shield, and cannot but believe every point in the statement furnished us.

Pennsylvania College.—The final examination of the Senior Class took place last week. The first honor was assigned to A. J. Erdman, of Macungie, Pa., the 2nd to P. K. Erdman, of Centre Valley; the 3d to W. C. Stoever, of Gettysburg; and the 4th divided between E. S. Breidenbaugh, of Gettysburg, and J. W. Richard, of Winchester, Va. The Latin Salutatory was assigned to W. C. Stoever, the Greek Oration to A. J. Erdman, and the Valedictory to P. K. Erdman.

The closing exercises of the College and Seminary will take place the second week in August, as follows:

Aug. 9—Baccalaureate Address, by Rev. Dr. Valentine, in morning.
Aug. 9—Sermon before the Young Men's Christian Association of the College, evening.

Aug. 12—Address before Philo. Society, by Rev. Dr. Park, of Andover, afternoon.
Aug. 12—Address to College Alumni, by Rev. George Parson, of Milton, evening.
Aug. 12—Commencement Exercises.

The Directors of the Theological Seminary will meet on Tuesday morning, Aug. 11, and the Trustees of the College on Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 12.

We understand that Prof. Wilken has resigned the German Professorship, to take effect at the close of the present session.

Sales.—Mr. E. Hiteshew has disposed of his Store Room, at Petersburg, (Y. S.,) to Mr. Joel Griest, for $4,500, and his entire stock of Goods to Messrs Griest and Bowers. Mr. Hiteshew has been a popular and successful merchant there for the last eleven years, making many warm friends. Messrs. Griest and Bowers are clever and attentive business men, who will spare no effort to retain the large patronage the store has heretofore enjoyed, if not increase it.

Mr. Levi Pitzer has disposed of his property, in Arendtsville, to Mr. Tobias R. Cover, for $1,775. Mr. Pitzer paid $1,275 for it two or three years ago. We understand that Mr. Cover, in connection with Mr. Lower, will open a Store there.

Grape Wine for Sickness.—Decidedly one of the nicest and most creditable of any advertised article we have ever seen, is the wine bearing above name, from the vineyard of Mr. Alfred Speer, of Passaic, N. J. This wine is expressed from the Oporto grape, which, under the hand of Mr. Speer, has been brought to a state of great perfection. The wine possesses the very highest medicinal virtues, and certainly as an article of beverage it is not, in our judgment, to be surpassed in color, taste, or any of the qualities which constitute a pure, mild and agreeable wine.—Boston Transcript.

Those irreverent lads who called names after a certain "bald head" of old, deserved their untimely end, because at that time no panacea had been discovered to restore the human hair upon the bald spots. But now Ring's Vegetable Ambrosia is known to possess the rare merit of invigorating the roots and filling them so full of life, where not entirely dead, that they cannot help putting forth a new growth which rivals in beauty the locks of youth. SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Permanent Tonic.

Every one at times feels the necessity of something to tone up the system depressed by mental or bodily exhaustion. At such times let every one, instead of taking alcoholic or medicinal stimulants, reinvigorate his debilitated system by the natural tonic elements of the or Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron which vitalizes and enriches the blood by supplying it with its Life-Element, IRON.

Being free from Alcohol in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding Reaction, but are permanent, infusing STRENGTH, VIGOR and NEW LIFE into all parts of the system, and building up an IRON CONSTITUTION.

WM. C. STERLING, Esq., of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., says:

"Since taking the Peruvian Syrup I feel better, my strength is improved, my bowels are regular, my appetite first-rate."

"There is an old Physician in this city, (older than I am) who has been in the drug business for 40 years, who has used the Syrup for three months, and gives it as his decided opinion, that it is the best Alterative Tonic Medicine he ever knew."

For DYSPEPSIA, DEBILITY and FEMALE WEAKNESSES, the Peruvian Syrup is a specific. A 32 page pamphlet sent free. The genuine has "PERUVIAN SYRUP" blown in the glass.

We are constantly hearing favorable reports from those who have tried this remedy. Any Anthony, wife of Mark Anthony, of this city, and living at No. 6 Locust Street, afflicted with a felon on the finger, was recently induced to make a trial of the Salve. Almost instantly she experienced relief from the pain, which had been almost unendurable. Every other remedy but this proved unavailing. Those who have tried it once are satisfied of its merits, and nothing will induce them to be without a supply.—Fall River News.

What Every Horseman Wants.

A good, cheap, and reliable Liniment. Such an article is Dr. Tobias'

VENITIAN HORSE LINIMENT,

in pint bottles, at One Dollar. For Lameness, Cuts, Galls, Colic, Sprains, &c., warranted cheaper than any other. It is used by all the great horsemen on Long Island courses. It will not cure the Ring-bone nor Spavin, as there is no Liniment in existence that will. What it is stated to cure it positively does. No owner of horses will be without it after trying one bottle. One dose revives and often saves the life of an over-heated or driven horse. For Colic and Bellyache it has never failed. Just as sure as the sun rises, just so sure is this valuable Liniment to be the Horse Exhilaration of the day. Use it one and all. Depot, 56 Cort

THE CAMPAIGN.

THE "COMPILER" TO BE ENLARGED!

The popularity of the GETTYSBURG COMPILER as an advertising medium compels us to secure more room for that department, without further encroachment upon reading matter space. Another enlargement is therefore inevitable. This will be effected shortly. The price of the paper will remain the same as now—two dollars per annum in advance.

FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

We have concluded to reduce our Campaign rates to 50 cents for a single subscriber; five for $2 25, or ten for $4.

THE party of "great moral ideas" is unfortunate in Georgia, if the following paragraph be true: "The negro Bradly's election to the Georgia Senate will be contested, on the ground that he was a felon. Another negro elect is in the jail or penitentiary, and his term will not expire soon enough to enable him to take his seat."

Killed by Lightning.—A correspondent of a York paper writes: The vicinity of McSherryville was shocked on Wednesday, the 24th ult., by the intelligence of the sudden death of one of its citizens. In the evening a storm came up which was attended with very sharp lightning and heavy thunder. When the storm appeared Henry Snyder and his wife were in the field hoeing corn; but the latter went to the house in order to escape the rain. Immediately after reaching the house she was startled by a blinding flash of lightning, followed by a deafening peal of thunder. Not seeing her husband coming as he had promised, she started in quest of him, stopping at the stable, thinking he might have taken refuge there. Not finding him there, she proceeded to the corn field, where she found him dead, having been killed by the flash referred to. He had started for the house with a steel hoe on his shoulder, which had received the fatal messenger. The hoe-handle was shivered in pieces, a part of which was in the clenched hand of the deceased. Mr. S. leaves a wife and two small children.

PROSPECTUS.

The Morning Patriot.

THE office of the late Patriot & Union having passed into the hands of the undersigned, they propose to supply a vacuum that has long existed in the newspaper press of interior Pennsylvania.

From sundry causes or other the reading masses of the Democratic party of the great interior counties of the State, have been compelled, either to do without the latest news, or patronise journals whose political sentiments were distasteful to them.

The Morning Patriot is intended to supply this want.

Its proprietors are determined that no efforts shall be spared, on their part, to make it FULLY equal, as a newspaper, to any of its competitors. Whatever the electric wires are able to communicate, up to the hour of going to press, will be furnished in its columns every morning; and its large size will enable it to give quite as much reading matter as any of its contemporaries.

As an advocate of sound political sentiments, favoring no faction, clique or section, but devoting its energies to the good of the whole party; as a vehicle of the latest news, and a chronicler of passing events, we are determined that it shall not be excelled; and we confidently appeal to a discriminating public for that liberal patronage and encouragement which are indispensable to success.

TERMS:

For the Daily, one year in advance	$7 00

Single copies, THREE CENTS.

THE WEEKLY PATRIOT.

It is the determination of the proprietors of the Patriot to make their weekly journal fully equal to what the Patriot & Union was in its palmiest days. It will be one of the largest weekly papers in the State, and special pains will be taken to fill its columns with such reading matter as will be found useful to the Farmer, the Mechanic and the Man of Business, and to make it an agreeable and welcome visitor in every family.

Every person should subscribe for the paper printed in his own county, and we do not mean to enter into competition with the local papers of the State. But, many people take their home paper and a city paper in addition. To such we send greeting.

IS DRAINAGE MANURE?

What are the effects of drainage?—Thorough drainage deepens the soil. Of what use is it to plow deeply and manure heavily while the soil is full of water? The roots of plants will not go down into stagnant water. The elements of plant food are not all on the surface; many of them have been washed down by the rains; some of them are found in the decomposing rocks themselves. Take away the water and the roots will find them.

Drainage lengthens the seasons. In our climate this is an important point to be gained. If by drainage one or two weeks could be gained, it would be quite a relief to our backward springs, when there is so much to be done in so short a space of time.

Drainage increases the effect of the application of manure; the soil being drier is more easily worked fine; the manure is also more evenly distributed. The water also passing through the soil, carries fertilizing matter down to the roots of plants. When there is stagnant water, manure must decompose slowly, if at all, but let the water pass off, the air is admitted, and decomposition takes place.

What observing man is there who does not know that his crops are improved in quality by drainage? Sweet English grass and clover take the place of sedge and rushes.—Agriculture of Mass., by C. L. Flint.

MAKING SOIL.

We make soil when we ditch it. Before, it was wet and unreclaimed, fit only for water-grasses—and in many cases not even these. Now it is land. You look upon it, and you think it almost a miracle; and, indeed, a miracle it is in farming, such as we want to see more of. This is the farmer's praise—that he has reclaimed useless soil. It is better than to make new soil, as is done in sandy districts accessible to the good markets. It relieves your land of a cess-pool where it is swampy, and removes a danger to cattle. An eye-sore is also removed; and you can now go about your farm. It is dry; it is land; it is healthy. It will last. But this only when you make your ditch well, if covered; if open, you need but keep it clear. But cover, that is the beauty and the benefit of the thing. If all our land was underlaid with numerous ditches—laid deep—what a world it would be! what an increase of the arable quantity of land! and what a wonderful increase of its productiveness! —Cor. Rural World.

BUCKWHEAT.

Buckwheat straw contains considerable quantities of lime, magnesia, potash, soda, and phosphoric and sulphuric acids, and hence its value as a green manure. It grows rapidly on almost any soil where other plants starve, as its large spreading top can be successfully grown on the same for years in succession without exhausting its soil. So its large branching top protects the soil from the scorching influence of the sun, and shades it so thickly as quickly to smother and eradicate all foul and noxious weeds; and when it is plowed down it not only decomposes rapidly and so forms a good manure, but also loosens the soil, and thus renders it permeable to heat, light, and moisture. But, to attain its full benefits as a manure, it ought to be sown early in the season, and top dressed with lime or plaster, and plowed down when it is in full blossom. It blossoms so much earlier than most other plants that two crops of it can, if necessary, be grown and plowed down on the same ground the same season, and the ground be seeded down with grass or a grain crop in September. It thus operates at once both as a cleanser and a renovator of the soil.

Considerable quantities of buckwheat are sown annually in Germany and in France as a fertilizer. A French writer, in noticing buckwheat, says:

"We cannot too much recommend, after our old and constant practice, the employment of this precious plant as a manure. A small quantity of seed, costing very little, sows a large surface and a great crop; when in flower (blossom) first roll and then plow it in. Its shade while growing destroys all weeds, and itself, when buried, is soon converted into vegetable mould."

MUTTON VS. PORK.

Physicians recommend mutton as the most wholesome meat, easiest digested, and best suited to invalids; while pork, as every body knows, is the most unwholesome flesh eaten. In England, mutton is a favorite dish, and we apprehend it is to this, rather than roast beef, that the Englishman owes his robust health and rosy complexion. Our people eat too much pork and too little mutton. And yet, as a contemporary well remarks, "mutton can be produced pound for pound at less than half the price of pork; yields more nourishment when eaten; and keeping sheep does not exhaust a farm to the extent that keeping hogs does. Sheep can be kept during the winter on hay and turnips, or mangel wurtzel, or sugar beet, while hogs will not do without at least some corn."

TO CLEAR A HOUSE OF VERMIN.

"Burleigh," of the Boston Journal, says: "I tell you, ladies, a secret that may be worth your knowing—a new remedy to clean a house of roaches and vermin has been found. So complete is the remedy that men offer to rid the premises of all these pestilential nuisances by contract. The article is sold under the name of French green and other high sounding names, and at quite a high price. But the article, in plain English, is common green paint in powder. Six cents' worth used about any house will 'clear the kitchen,' and all its surroundings. These pests infest many houses in this city, ad nauseam, and we believe the ladies will thank us for suggesting so cheap an eradicator."

A TRAP FOR ANTS.

As the season is now at hand for ants, housewives and others who are troubled with them may probably use the following trap to advantage:

"Procure a large sponge, wash it well, and press it dry, which will leave the cells quite open; then sprinkle over it some fine white sugar, and place it near where the ants are troublesome. They will soon collect upon the sponge and take up their abode in the cells. It is only necessary to dip the sponge in scalding water, which will wash them out dead. Put on more sugar and set the trap for a new haul. This process will soon clear the house of every ant.

CHINA is rapidly undergoing the process of civilization. Beer is made at Shanghae, a whiskey distillery is going up at Canton, and the first hanging recently came off in that city.

A HEN-PECKED reader writes that he takes no stock in the "new woman's cloth." He says his "old woman's club is enough for him, and frequently too much."

Albright, Reikes & Schmidt, Chickering & Son, Bradbury, Gale & Son, Knabe & Gem.

ESTEY'S CELEBRATED COTTAGE, HARMONIC AND BOUDOIR ORGANS AND MELODEONS,

These Instruments are already by any thing found in this country or in Europe, as is admitted by all impartial judges. The most eminent Pipe Organ Builders and Performers, the last to discover excellence in Reed Tone, pronounced them vastly superior to all others for exceedingly quick articulation and round Tone, the essential feature in instruments of this class. We invite the severe scrutiny and criticism of all.

PATENT VOX HUMANA TREMOLO.

This late and most wonderful invention (so acknowledged by all leading artists) will be found only in the Estey Instruments. In attempting to describe the effect, the listener, for want of language. Its beauties cannot be written, but must be heard to be appreciated. By this stop an ordinary performer can produce an effect which requires a life time of practice for an artist upon a violin. It entirely changes the reed Tone, giving the sympathetic sweetness of the human voice, making it so melodious and pure that it never fails to enchain the listener.

THE HARMONIC ORGAN

for Churches, Public Halls and Parlors has a powerful sub-Bass with independent reeds, Harmonic attachment and Vox Humana Tremolo, and is believed to be the most powerful reed organ made, being nearly equal to a Pipe Organ of three times the cost.

All instruments warranted for five years.

A liberal discount allowed for Churches and Sabbath Schools.

TO FARMERS!

Pacific Guano Company's

SOLUBLE

PACIFIC GUANO!

PRICE REDUCED TO $56.00 PER TON.

THE USE OF THIS GUANO in Maryland for several years for Corn, Tobacco and other Spring Crops, as well as for Wheat, has established its excellence. It possesses all the quickness of Peruvian Guano, with permanent qualities not possessed by that article.

Experience has shown that this Guano ripens the Wheat crop from five to six days earlier than the Super Phosphates. It also ripens Tobacco earlier, and produces a crop of better quality. The Pacific Guano Company has authorized the above reduction in consequence of the depressed condition of the farming interests in the Southern States. It is the purpose of the Company to furnish the best fertilizer at the lowest price, which they are able to do by reason of their large capital and facilities. The Guano is warranted same in quality as heretofore sold by us.
